

Good afternoon,

The Windsor-Detroit Bridge Authority (WDBA) team wants to let you know about new information that is now available on our website and YouTube Channel.

Public Information Meetings - Materials available

The WDBA held Public Information Meetings on Tuesday, November 17, 2015, in Windsor, Ontario and Wednesday, November 18, 2015, in Detroit, Michigan to provide opportunities to learn more about the project, including how the procurement process to identify the private sector partner works and an overall project update.

Materials from the meetings are now available on our website. Read the fact sheets, review the display panels and watch a video of the presentation that was given.

If you have any comments on what was presented, we welcome your feedback. Please email us at info@wdbridge.com.

New Video - Early Works Activities

The Canadian Port of Entry is transforming daily with Early Works activities well underway. Christina Vickery, Project Manager with the WDBA, explains how grubbing and removing topsoil is an important activity to prepare the site for future construction. See what she has say here.

You can find out more about Early Works by visiting www.wdbridge.com/en/early-works.

New Meetings Page

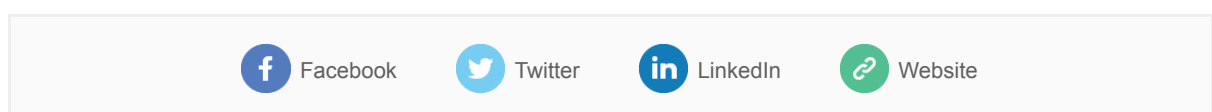

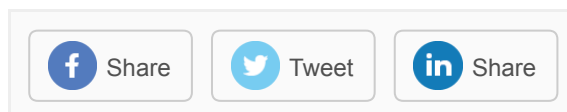

Did you miss a meeting that we held or want to review materials that were presented again? Not to worry, all information from public meetings can now be found in one location on our new meetings page of our website. Take a look here www.wdbridge.com/en/meetings.
